Join Us for Canadian Innovation Week

Be part of a national movement celebrating ingenuity, creativity, and transformative ideas.

What is Canadian Innovation Week?

Canadian Innovation Week, led by the Rideau Hall Foundation (RHF), is a national celebration that brings together individuals, organizations, and institutions to spotlight innovations that are shaping Canada's future. Last year, Canadian Innovation Week reached over 12 million people.

Why Partner With Us?

Partnering with Canadian Innovation Week is free and inclusive to all sectors, as our goal is to support innovation in Canada by encouraging big ideas and inspiring conversations.

Benefits of Becoming a Canadian Innovation Week Partner

Visibility:

Amplify the story of your innovative initiatives with a broad national audience on social media with us, or through our newsletter reaching 2,000+ subscribers.

Impact:

Inspire the next generation of innovators and help build a more inclusive, resilient, and prosperous Canada by encouraging big ideas.

Flexibility:

Participate in a way that fits your capacity, host your own events, share stories (past and present), publish research, or express your support for innovation online.

Collaboration:

Connect with a network of 60+ official Canadian Innovation Week partners and 11,000+ contributors since 2018. Join the nationwide conversation online, have a partner page on our website alongside supportive organizations, or collaborate with partners to host an event during the Week to encourage innovation across Canada.
